

What are you waiting for?

With the services of the Office of Child Support Enforcement, your child's life could be better.

The Office of Child Support Enforcement offers various services such as:

- Location of the noncustodial parent by using information on his or her income and bank accounts.
- Paternity tests.
- Establishment of the support order.
- Modification of the support order.
- Enforcement of the support order.
- Information on organizations that offer legal and employment assistance.

Visit the Office of Child Support
Enforcement nearest you.

Our children.
Our responsibility.

